OUT OF TOWN

YARRA VALLEY
For eight years, ceramicist Ted Secombe has been working on pared-back metal and porcelain sculptures inspired by the natural world (an example is pictured). The ceramicist of 30 years wanted to explore new media and materials, then integrate the complex glazes and rich finishes for which he is renowned. The exhibition at his studio is open this weekend and next. Today and tomorrow 10am-5pm, 240 Biasess Lane, Dixons Creek, free, 5965 2090, tedsecombe.com

MELBOURNE
The Melbourne Festival celebrates the 100th birthday of Melbourne's iconic public square, the 100 Melbourne, by bringing together a collection of heritage public squares on the Morning Star. Go for a walk, see the public square sculpture and celebrate the birthday with cake. Entry is free but tickets apply for events. Tomorrow 10am-5pm, 100 Melbourne, High Street, free entry, 9212 2200, publicsquaremelbournyville.com

LONGME FESTIVAL
Live music, performances, art installations and workshops take over Longme for the second annual Longme Festival of Performing Arts. Highlights include a project by Melbourne artist Whangarua and local artists and poets like Sally Saw Day and Deborah of Longme, along with music screenings, featured exhibitions Body Beautiful and the "Springing" of Alice Carbone and the Oceanic Rocks. Today and tomorrow, various venues, longme.com.au, 9212 2212

RED HILL
The Red Hill Spring Flower Show and Garden Festival gives a night to celebrate home horticulturalists. Along with the flower show, the festival includes tours, children's activities and information sessions. A key speaker is Penny Woodward, the author of Plant-Proofed Plants. Today 10am-5pm, Red Hill, 100 Church Street, Red Hill, 9212 2212, rhp.com.au

Six reasons to visit Shepparton

1. SHEPPARTON'S HERITAGE
Shepparton is a vibrant, historic town with a rich cultural heritage. The town is home to many historic buildings and landmarks, including the Shepparton Art Museum and the Shepparton Railway Station. The town is also home to many historic sites, including the Shepparton Railway Station and the Shepparton Railway Station.

2. SAM
When a lifetime work by sculptor Sam John, called Woman and Child, was exhibited in the Shepparton Art Museum, known as SAM, locals felt in love with the hyperrealist depiction of an elderly woman cradling a baby. So they voted money to buy it and it's now part of the collection. SAM also has one of the best collections of Australian ceramics from the 19th century, and paintings by Frederick McCubbin, Arthur Streeton and Margaret Preston.

3. YARRA
